

District 7450 Rotary Leader

Volume 7 Number 9

March 2013

Message from DG Dave

Good day to each of you.

March is Literacy Month in Rotary. What will you and your club do to honor this emphasis? Many Clubs provide dictionaries to third-graders at local schools. Others get involved in reading to classes of younger students. Some Clubs provide books of various kinds to school students.

We have a District Literacy Committee with Bruce Larkin of Westtown-Goshen Rotary Club in charge. He can be reached at his cell number (610-357-1262) or email (funnybruce@aol.com.) If you need some ideas or help, feel free to contact him or any of the committee. The Literacy Committee and the District leadership are interested in recognizing Clubs which have had an emphasis on Literacy. We ask that Clubs submit their District Literacy Award applications to me at dellis817@comcast.net by April 15th.

To qualify, a Club is asked to participate in at least five Literacy projects during this Rotary year. In your application, please give a brief description of each project. Further information can be found on the District Literacy page on our District website, www.district7450.org.

As we share about recognitions, please note Clubs are asked to submit their Presidential Citation applications to me as well. The qualifications are at http://www.rotary.org/RIdocuments/en_pdf/900a_en12.pdf. Completed forms should be sent to me at dellis817@comcast.net by March 31st.

As you read this Rotary Leader, your Club President-Elect will have just completed the PETS weekend. This is a time when our Presidents-Elect gather with the Presidents-Elect from four other Rotary Districts to learn what it means to lead a Rotary Club and where to turn for the resources that are needed. Congratulations to each President-Elect and best wishes for a great Rotary year. Will each of us as Club members help to make this happen?

As you do so, I know that you will keep in mind my message to each Rotarian: "When you have the choice to sit it out or dance, I HOPE YOU DANCE."

Message marks Rotary's 108th birthday:

PECO champions 'Rotary's war on Polio: 2 billion children inoculated'

Rotary's remarkable battle to eradicate polio worldwide was highlighted on the PECO Crown Lights display towering over center city Philadelphia on Tuesday, February 23, the 108th anniversary of first Rotary meeting in Chicago, Ill. in 1905.

Displayed at top of the PECO building was a motion ad "Rotary's War on Polio, Two Billion Children Inoculated Worldwide," which was part of Rotary International's public image effort to highlight the "End Polio Now!" campaign in cities all around the world.

Because of the location of the PECO Crown Lights "motion messages," which are visible from the Schuylkill Expressway and Center City, tens of thousands of motorists and pedestrians could view Rotary's message.

Go to: rotary7450.org/happenings to view the lights.

Membership update from DG Dave:Clubs induct 112 new members, but lose 110

Our District (7450) started this Rotary year with the "100 in 100" membership program. During the first 100 days of the year we introduced 70 people to Rotary who were not a part of it prior to July 1st. Since that time, we have continued to introduce new people to Rotary, but we have said goodbye to a number of Rotarians as well. As of February 20, 2013, we have inducted 112 new Rotarians in Clubs throughout the District, but we have said goodbye to 110 for a net gain of two Rotarians. This is based on the reporting that Club secretaries have done through our database on www.dacdb.com. We recognize that this may not be an exact number, as there were terminations and new member listing during the first eight months of the year reflecting dates earlier than July 1st.

The question for each club is what are you doing to help with new members and to minimize the departure of our current membership? As District Governor, I have come to realize that there are legitimate reasons why people can no longer continue in Rotary as reflected through their current membership. It's possible that they may have a new job in a different community or that their employment hours may have changed. It's also possible that their responsibilities at home may have changed. Finances may have become a problem. My suggestion is that we, as Club members, look at each situation individually – it may mean that we introduce a Rotarian to another Rotary Club that is better suited to the individual because of location or timing. It's also possible that the Rotarian may be able to join an e-Club that gives credit for attendance on line any time during the week. These E-Club members can do service with the local Club where he or she resides and where they may have been a member in the past. Let's work with every individual to find a way to serve our communities and the world.

Presidential Citation

Each year the president of Rotary International establishes a set of criteria that he asks Rotary clubs around the world to meet. When they do, the club is recognized with a Presidential Citation.

You may find the criteria for recognition this Rotary year at http://www.rotary.org/RIdocuments/en_pdf/900a_en12.pdf.

When a Club is recognized with a Presidential Citation, it is being thanked by the RI president for contributing to Rotary's organizational goals. The impact of each Club meeting these minimum standards is multiplied when another Club joins them and then again when another Club joins. Club presidents are asked to submit the form found on the webpage above to your AG and to me by March 31st.

February 9 Polar Plunge raises $1,235

Longwood Rotarians/Interactors share Golden Plunger Award

A combined Longwood Rotary Club/Unionville High School Interact team again won the Golden Plunger Award by raising $1,235 for the Brandywine Valley Association (BVA) Annual Polar Plunge at the Brandywine Picnic Park in West Chester February 9. For the first time, the Longwood Rotary group was tied with another team in raising the most money.

Longwood Rotary Club members donated Happy Dollars at a recent meeting to mandate that president-elect John Marble take the plunge. Funds quickly reached the agreed amount, so John had virtually no choice about getting wet.

Joining him were several other Club members, including Unionville/Chadds Ford School District Superintendent John Sanville, an avid supporter of the BVA and instigator of the annual ritual.

The BVA is a nonprofit organization dedicated to restoring, preserving, and conserving the Brandywine Valley's natural resources. All of its funding comes from membership dues and private donations.

Rotary District 7450 update on scholarships

By Joe Batory, Past president Rotary Club of Philadelphia

District's final Ambassadorial Scholar

Lindsey Elkin, the final Ambassadorial Scholar from Rotary District 7450 has arrived in Cape Town, South Africa to study for a master's degree in International Relations at the University of Cape Town .

Rotary International has discontinued the Ambassadorial Scholarship program effective July 1, 2013,

After the 19+ hour trip, she was warmly greeted by her Rotary host counselor in Cape Town. Lindsey has already met a number of Cape Town Rotary members whom she describes as gracious and diverse. She is living with four other Rotary Ambassadorial Scholars from around the world.

Global Grant Scholarship candidate

The Rotary District 7450 input for the Global Grant Scholarship candidate (name deliberately withheld because the scholarship has not yet been awarded) for study in 2013-2014 has been entered online by Joe Batory.

Our Rotary District 7450 nominee is working to complete her required section, the online profile, as part of the application which should be finalized sometime in March.

Her university choice is the prestigious Universidad de la Paz (chartered by the United Nations) in Costa Rica where she would study in the master's degree program in Sustainable Economic and Community Development. Her life goal is to work with the poor and underserved of Latin America to create economic opportunities where these are limited or non-existent.

Scholarship chair Joe Batory has established a successful linkage with the Rotary Club of San Jose which would be the host partner for this scholarship.

Rotary International will begin reviewing Global Grant Scholarship applications in April . The District 7450 Global Grant Scholarship award will be $30,000 with $15,000 coming from the Rotary District 7450 DDF and the other $15,000 coming from the Rotary Foundation World Fund. Annual tuition at the Universidad de la Paz is $27,250 so if our nominee is awarded this scholarship, she will have to use more than $10,000 of her own money for living expenses and travel.

Seek Peace Fellowship recommendations

Information regarding the next round of Peace Fellowships for study in 2014-2015 has been circulated to all universities in the Greater Philadelphia area as well as all Rotary District 7450 Club presidents. There are two types of Peace Fellowships:

Peace Fellowship 1 is a fully paid two-year master's degree at one of five overseas university centers.

Peace Fellowship 2 is a totally subsidized three-month certificate program at Chulalongkorn University in Bangkok, Thailand.

Qualifications:

Peace Fellowship 1 requires at least a bachelor's degree and is for persons already out in the world of work, i.e., at least three years of work experience is required.

Peace Fellowship 2 three-month certificate program requires at least some post-secondary coursework and five years minimum work experience.

Application Procedure:

Peace Fellowship applications must be downloaded from the Rotary International website. Candidates must initially seek and receive the endorsement of a Rotary Club in District 7450 .

Applicants will need to demonstrate how they possess the Rotary ideals/goals of building peace, preventing violence, mediation and compromise.

Applications will be accepted by the Rotary District 7450 Scholarship Committee until April 3, 2013. Interviews will occur in May of 2013. It is anticipated that Rotary Foundation will announce the fellowship recipients for 2014-2015 in November.

Great Valley Rotarians support Fire Company Building

The Great Valley Rotary Club (formerly Exton-Frazer Rotary Club) donated $500 toward the capital building fund for East Whiteland Fire Company's Station 5 following its weekly breakfast meeting February 27. Station 5 will break ground in the near future for the new facility on Route 401 near Mill Lane.

Built in 1958, the existing station is too small to house fire and ambulance apparatus, equipment, and support functions.

The current firehouse is not centrally located, which negatively impacts response time and the firehouse does not meet building, fire, or ADA codes. The deteriorating condition of the facility and the outdated nature of the structure hinders 24/7 capabilities, equipment maintenance, training, community outreach, and ongoing recruitment of volunteers.

The volunteer fire company provides fire, rescue, Basic Life Support EMS, HazMat, and fire-police services for East Whiteland Township and parts of Charlestown Township. The company also is the primary EMS provider to parts of neighboring West Whiteland Township.

In addition to residential neighborhoods, the "first due" coverage includes Routes 29, 202, 30, 401, the Pennsylvania Turnpike, Immaculata University, and numerous business parks and retail centers.

To help the dedicated volunteers protect the community, the Friends of East Whiteland Fire and Ambulance Company (FEWFA) was created in 2007 by business leaders and members of the East Whiteland Township community to lead the fundraising efforts for a new fire station.

Each year, the Great Valley Rotary Club donates funds to non-profit organizations as well as community organizations.

Wayne Rotary Speaker Series: April 10 program

The Wayne Rotary Speaker Series continues Wednesday, April 10th, at Margaret Kuo's on Lancaster Avenue in, Wayne with Dr. Dwight Jaggard, professor and director of the Executive Management of Technology Program at the University of Pennsylvania, speaking about: "Decision Making and Persuasion." Using results from management science, behavioral economics and social psychology, the presentation will examine common biases that can derail good decisions and some ways to enhance our own decision-making and persuasion skills.

The program begins at 6 p.m. with cocktails, buffet and networking. The meal service will be personally supervised by Rotarian Margaret Kuo and the speaker will begin at 7 p.m.

For information about program costs, contact Dr. Joseph R. Greenberg at jrgdmd@gmail.com with questions. Proceeds support local, national and international projects.

Rotary Foundation Factoids

If your club is considering applying to the Rotary Foundation for a local or international grant the Rotary Foundation staff recommends taking five steps to help assure qualifying:

Conduct a local needs assessment. This should be done whether the project is at home or abroad. Check with local civic and community leaders to learn about their most pressing needs, and the true feasibility of your proposed project helping to meet those needs.

Make use of local resources and funding. Are there local businesses, charitable or civic groups that would have an interest in helping with planning, funding, manpower or follow-up?

Determine the most appropriate human and technology resources to address the issue. Simple and less complicated can often be better and longer lasting than high tech that demands more maintenance and manpower.

If the project requires technology and/or machinery, assure to provide continuing monitoring and maintenance. Make sure that local talent is available to address any issues that might arise.

Teach those individuals benefiting from the project about the details of the project. If there is equipment and/or technology involved, make sure that community members know how things work and who to contact when they don't.

West Grove-Avondale Club to sponsor exchange student to Russia

Over the years, the West Grove-Avondale Rotary Club has sponsored many incoming and outgoing high school students through Rotary International's Youth Exchange program, and this year is no exception.

Morgan Cyron, a student at Avon Grove High School, has been accepted for the Rotary Youth Exchange program for the 2013-2014 school year to her first country of choice: Russia.

Through this long-term exchange, Morgan will spend a year living with host families and attending school in Russia. She is taking Russian courses to become as fluent as possible before she leaves for the exchange in August.

In return for Morgan's exchange, the West Grove Avondale Rotary Club will be hosting a foreign student. The Cyron's will host the student for part of the time and the Club is looking for other families interested in hosting for several months each.

The Rotary Youth Exchange program offers numerous benefits to its young participants and their Rotarian hosts and mentors, as well as to the community at large. Through Youth Exchange, students learn firsthand about all aspects of life in another country. Host Clubs and families and the entire community are enriched by extended, friendly contact with someone from a different culture.

Rotary Youth Exchange offers three types of exchange programs:

- Long-term exchange, open to students ages 15-19 and usually lasts 10-12 months. Most students are 16-18 years old during their exchange year. The student lives with more than one family in the host country and is required to attend school.
- Short-term exchange (ages as above). These exchanges vary from several days to several weeks; they often take place when school is not in session and usually do not include an academic program.

- New Generations exchange. This specialized short-term exchange lasts three to six weeks and is open to young people ages 18-25. This program may include a vocational element.

Rotary's Long-Term Youth Exchange Program is much less expensive than other exchange programs. It is organized and administered by volunteer Rotarians and their families, working through local Rotary Clubs and Rotary Districts. Host families are selected on the basis of quality, not because they are compensated.

Students and their families are required to provide round-trip transportation, clothing, health and travel insurance, and spending money. For long-term exchanges, the host Club will pay any school tuition fees for required academic programs and provide a modest monthly allowance. Free room and board are provided by host families selected by the host Club.

Because the program is staffed by volunteers, Rotary is able to make Youth Exchange opportunities accessible to young people of all backgrounds and economic means. In some cases there may be scholarships.

Applications for the 2014-2015 school year will be accepted beginning September, 2013. For information, contact Rosalie Wells, Youth Exchange officer for the West Grove Avondale Rotary Club, at 610-869-4315 or (www.westgroveavondalerotary.org). Rotary Leadership Institute offers courses

Now is a good time for Rotary leaders in each Club to decide which of its members should attend the Rotary Leadership Institute (RLI) which is offering two courses in the Delaware Valley this spring. Courses are scheduled for:

Registration Fee $95.00.
