

District 7450 Rotary Leader

Volume 6 Number 12

June 2012

Message from DG Bonnie

What an amazing month it has been, as this Rotary year concludes. We are just home from Rotary International Convention in Bangkok, Thailand. Each week it is an amazing experience to be in the presence of Rotarians at their weekly meetings. Sometimes I even get to attend my own amazing club, the Longwood Rotary Club.

But as amazing as local meetings are, to experience the network of Rotarians at the Club and local community level, Rotary on the world stage is Rotary at its best. My hope for all Rotarians in District 7450 is that you can experience Rotary beyond your local Club, into the District, the Zone, and finally Rotary International. You will say as I do, I am so proud to be a Rotarian.

The opening ceremony at each Rotary International Convention is the Parade of Flags. Over 200 countries and territories participate, with Rotary youth carrying the flags and banners, announced to everyone (with a graphic of the globe on a giant screen with a star to help us place each country and territory). The order is alphabetical so the tension is high when USA is announced. Everyone is proud of his or her country, and you can't help jumping to your feet and clapping. There were three new countries announced this year where Rotary has opened up. And the last banner in the parade is the "Flag That Unites Us All" – the flag of Rotary International. And it is a united convention. All Rotarians, all with the same core values, all with Service as our middle name – just many cultures and languages brought together under one gigantic roof. This year attendance was one of the highest: between 35,000 and 40,000 participants.

Rotary membership is held in such high esteem in many countries. Several delegations had matching suits and jackets made for the occasion. The Princess of Thailand opened the convention to much pomp and tradition. We celebrated the eradication of polio in India; we remembered the ties between Rotary and the beginnings of the United Nations. We heard about water and sanitation projects, microeconomic grants to poor women, human trafficking in all parts of the world and the schools established to rehabilitate and serve the victims. We heard from earnest people all over the world, working people to people trying to solve these human issues to make life better for someone.

Join with me and the Club presidents of 2011-2012 Sunday, June 24, as we celebrate this amazing Rotary year. We will congratulate Rotary Clubs, Interact Clubs, and Rotaract Clubs which have earned Rotary International, District 7450 and Zone 32 awards and certificates. District 7450 will present one of the highest honors in Rotary International, the "Service Above Self" award, to one of our District's Rotarians. There are only 150 Service Above Self awards given yearly (out of 531 Districts). We are honored to have one of these prestigious awards to present. And lastly, we will induct the new leadership team, under the direction of Dave Ellis, to continue towards a new Rotary year of service, friendship and making the world a better place.

District 7450 will celebrate DG Bonnie Korengel and her Rotary year and install DG Dave Ellis for the 2012-2013 Rotary year Sunday, June 24, from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the Helicopter Museum, 1220 American Boulevard, West Chester. DG Bonnie and DGE Dave are inviting all Rotarians to join them for a reception (beer, wine and soda included) at 4:30 p.m. and dinner at 5:30 p.m.

Awards will be presented to a number of Clubs and a District Rotarian will receive the RI "Service Above Self" award, which is presented annually to no more than 150 Rotarians worldwide. Cost for reception, museum entrance and dinner is $50. Seats may be reserved at www.dacdb.com. Please register and include form of payment.

District 7450 Rotarians have been invited to participate in the July 4th Wawa Welcome America parade around Independence Park. All participants must sign the "Individual Agreement of Release" posted on District 7450 website (rotary7450.org), no later than June 8. See story on page two for details.

Philadelphia's July 4th parade: Great publicity opportunity for District 7450's 53 Rotary Clubs

By PP Joseph Batory, Philadelphia Rotary Club

Imagine this. Hundreds of Rotarians, Rotaractors, Interactors, EarlyActors and families marching in front of the birthplace of America, Independence Hall, on the 4th of July. This is not just a dream. We are going to pull this off in the highest Rotary style, filled with the color and spirit of 53 Rotary clubs from District 7450.

WAWA, the sponsors of the most meaningful and historic Independence Day Parade in our country, has accepted our District Public Relations Committee's proposal that the Rotarians of District 7450 participate in the 2012 parade after our very successful debut last year. When thousands of parade spectators along the parade route cheered for Rotary!!!

Now, like Uncle Sam said, "We need YOU" to get ready. Each Rotary District 7450 Club president should form a group to represent that Club in the parade. We should all be dressed in blue and gold/yellow Rotary shirts. Ideally, the "Rotarians at Work" day shirts from April 28 would be perfect.

Can't find your banner? Don't have a banner? Don't think that your banner reflects the outstanding quality of your club? You have about six weeks to order one to bring the parade. So don't delay. Get that banner and arrange to have it carried proudly through the most historic four square blocks in the United States of America and be proud. Be proud of what Rotary is and what Rotary has accomplished.

Governor-elect Dave Ellis has asked that each District 7450 Rotary club have at least a few representatives in parade on July 4th. The only requirement is that all of us wear blue Rotary shirts. And the more banners from local Rotary Clubs the better.

This is an opportunity for Rotary District 7450 to shine.

Reserve the date and select your parade participants now. This is a great way to spend part of the 4th of July. Last year many Rotarians stayed in town for lunch and what better place to be on this occasion.

Marchers: Sign agreement release

All Independence Day Parade participants must sign the Individual Agreement of Release now posted on the District 7450 website. Fax "signed" forms no later than June 8 to: attention Sharon Quick at: 215-772-7620 or mail to: attention Sharon Quick, Rotary Club of Philadelphia, 123 South Broad Street, 24th Floor, Philadelphia, PA, 19109

At Philadelphia Zoo: District 7450 partners with 'Walk with Me'

District 7450 Rotary Clubs are invited to join Central Delaware County Rotary Club as a sponsor and participant in the Easter Seals 2012 "Walk with Me" as a volunteer, member of team of walkers, or as a sponsor.

Last year, Easter Seals of Southeastern Pennsylvania provided direct services to 7,700 children and adults with disabilities. In 2011, more than 1,500 participants and our sponsors raised over $110,000 for local services.

Easter Seals has ranked first among National Health Council members for highest dollars spent on direct services for 28 consecutive years.

Acknowledging the participation of Central Delaware County Rotarians in the past, associate director of development Liz Graham explains, "The strong history and bond between our agencies can really be leveraged and enhanced through "Walk With Me."

"Unique to Easter Seals Walk With Me, each and every participant will be paired with an Honorary Ambassador, a child or teen who has or who is currently receiving Easter Seals services, and have the opportunity to learn about and meet the ambassador and the family. "I look forward to working with Rotary International and creating a plan to engage local Districts and Clubs."

For information about the day's events and the services provided by the Easter Seals of Southeastern Pennsylvania in Bucks, Delaware, Chester, Montgomery and Philadelphia counties, go to page 12. Website for the walk is www.walkwithme.org.

25th 'Rotary Night at Phillies' July 24

'Rotarians at Work Day':

43 Rotary Clubs, 1600 volunteers tackle projects

Members of the Hill Rotary Club, Friends of the Wissahickon, and Friends of Cresheim Trail worked April 28 to clear a path through the wooded area between Allen's Lane and Emlen Street as part of the future Cresheim Trail which will link Philadelphia to other parts of the regional trail system. Participants included Susan Danneberg, Friends of Cresheim Trail; Rotarians Christian Mongrain, Beth Ownsworth and Ned Mitinger; and David Dannenberg, Friends of the Wissahickon.

Longwood Rotary Club joined forces to clean the roadway of litter and debris. They also moved on to the Anson B. Nixon park and cleaned the walking trail from winter branches and leaves.

Downingtown Rotarians Carl Gregory, Leandro Porciuncula and Joe McCahon were joined by Jack Hines, Bernie Orgmeister, Steve Mueller and Evelyn Samuels of the Thorndale Rotary Club for the cleanup of Johnsontown Park. While most were picking up litter and debris, Jack Hines literally "went out on a limb" over the creek to get some trash. Steve Mueller was standing guard in case Jack took a plunge!

Feasterville Rotary Club helped landscape the Neshaminy Senior Activity Center in Feasterville. Rotarians completed enlarging and planting three flower beds, planting three trees and began the installation of stone walls. Project leader was Jim Barrett.

Newtown Square Rotary Club prepared the ground and placed several plants around the new Drexel Park sign which is two large stone pillars with "Drexel Park" between them. Those who participated report, "We had a great time!"

This is one way that District 7450 is working to get the Rotary message out to those involved in community outreach in the Delaware Valley. The summit was attended by 800 to 1000 people representing more than 100 companies all of which are committed to "doing good in the world."

Kennett Square Rotary Club president-elect Bronwyn Martin, president Al Schmitt, new Rotarian Brian Roberts, DG Bonnie Korngel, and past president Jenny Armitage pitched in to resurface the Kennett Rotary Club's portion of the Red Clay Trail. Volunteers removed debris and weeds and laid new cinders and paved with black top a portion of the trail which was the Club's Centennial project in 2005. Helping the Rotarians were high school students who volunteered.

Glen Riddle Rotary Club members Denise Romanelli, Ruth Hill, president Sue Linvill, Gundaker acting treasurer Harry Hill, and past president Kathryn Flagg created and planted a Garden for the Alzheimer's Unit at Residence at Glen April 24. Thousands of Rotarians worldwide took part in the "Rotarians at Work" day. The District list is on Rotary7450.org, along with photos. The RI list of projects by Clubs worldwide is on rotary.org.

Frankford Northeast Philadelphia Rotary Club members and family and friends worked with Delaware River City Corporation to plant over 40 trees and clean up Pleasant Hill Park along the North Delaware River.

Broomall Rotarians helped at the annual Junior Olympics at Veteran's Park in Marple. Dedicated to children in the Marple and Newtown communities and beyond, the day includes a broad jump, 30- and 50-yard dashes, a ball throw, and more. Rotarian Bill Buchanan organized the day. Among volunteers were the Marple Newtown High School Tigers football team and Interact Club. "It's great that they (high school volunteers) do this," says Rotarian Adam Matlawski. "And, frankly, we couldn't do this without them," adds Club president Paul Quintavalla. Mrs. Marty's Deli donates refreshments each year and Marple Commissioner Dan Leefson, of Leefson Tool & Die Co., provides medals

Rustin High School Interactors report exciting, successful year

Glen Mills-Thornbury Rotary Club president Karen Mazzarella presents cake to congratulate Rustin Interact Club to this year's officers.

Rustin High School librarian Shirley LeClerc, who also is Interact advisor, reports the Interact Club "completed another exciting and successful year. Our officers this year worked hard to keep the students motivated and provide opportunities for service. Our Club served meals at the Salvation Army, provided meals to needy Rustin families at Thanksgiving, supported local students in need by providing school supplies, held our annual mum sale and flower sale and had a back-breaking and satisfying day working with Habitat for Humanity. The Club made donations of $200 to West Chester Food Cupboard and the HEADstrong Foundation, a local organization whose mission is to carry on the legacy and vision of HEADstrong founder Nicholas Colleluori through advocating, fundraising and supporting those affected by blood cancer and those working towards eliminating it."

LeClerc added, "We will be saying goodbye to our seniors Amy, Lauren, Megan, Evan, Charlie, and Mike. We wish them continued success. Our students also assisted with various volunteer and service activities outside of the group and continue to put "service above self." We would like to thank the Glen Mills Rotary Club, especially president, Karen Mazzarella for Interact laser tag team.

Taking part in the lazer tag game is Interact advisor Shirley LeClerc, Rustin H.S. librarian.

District seeks host families for Rotary exchange students

Ardmore Rotarian James Hall, member of District 7450 Rotary Exchange Student Board, reports 12 students are scheduled to arrive in the District for the 2012-2013 school year. The student's range in age from 15 ½ to 18 years and are juniors and seniors in high school.

Hall said students usually live with two different families in the same school district during their year here. He said, "This allows the students to experience different family situations and eases the commitment to the families.

"We only ask that host families open their homes, and accept these children as their own." Hall pointed out and listed some of the responsibilities of host families during the student's stay."

They include:

- "Meeting your student on arrival at the airport and welcoming them as part of your family;
- "Working with the student to master the language;

- "Involving the student in obligations similar to those established for your own family members;
- "Helping the student meet Rotary obligations, which include attending Rotary functions;
  - "Exploring opportunities for the student to meet others through school, church, Rotary Club or community activities;
  - "Providing a safe environment for the student and ensuring the student's safety."

Hall emphasized that potential host families will be interviewed by a Rotarian, complete a background check and attend a host family training session. "They DO NOT need to be Rotarians themselves or be of a specific age. We've had families that have children in school and young families without children. All families are eligible; with or without children; young or "older"; employed or retired. An open heart, an open mind and a willingness to share are all that are required, he added.

Foundation Committee seeks team leader for Korean trip

District 7450 is looking for a Rotarian team leader to lead four outstanding professionals to visit Rotary District 3600 in South Korea for four weeks, in April 2013, as part of the Group Study Exchange program of The Rotary Foundation.

Through the program, teams of professionals exchange visits between paired areas in different countries. The awards involve four-week visits, during which team members share homes with Rotary families and have the opportunity to meet their professional counterparts. They will give presentations to Rotary Clubs and other groups about their home country.

The Rotary Foundation provides a round-trip air ticket, and local Rotarians in the host country provide meals, lodging and group travel in their District. Team leader and members pay for their personal and incidental expenses, as well as travel insurance.

Rotarians interested in applying for Team Leader should be active Rotarians in their local club and in the district, be able to commit to being away for all 4 weeks, be committed to building a strong team including language lessons for the exchange and be willing to assist the incoming GSE team during their stay and promote GSE throughout the district.

RI Convention:*Over 38,000 Rotarians from 181 countries convene in Bangkok

The Rotary International Convention was held in Bangkok May 6-9 at Impact Muang Thong Thani, bringing more than 38,000 members from 181 countries and geographical areas to Thailand for its 103rd annual convention. The Rotary convention is often described as “mini United Nations” because of its internationality and multiculturalism. DG Chamnan Channuang, District 3360, covering Northern Thailand and Laos, compiled a report of the convention for Rotary Club of Chiang Mai North newsletter.

Opening ceremony: Praise from Princess

Her Royal Highness Princess Chulabhorn, representing His Majesty the King, graciously presided over the opening ceremony. In her address she thanked Rotarians for their good work around the world. “Rotary International is well-known the world over as a public charitable organization distinguished for its public service to humanity and for its tireless strive for public good. They include relief work for those who fall victim to natural disasters, campaigning for improvement in quality of life, as well as for the promotion of world peace.”

“I’m truly impressed by the unity of all Rotarians in devoting themselves to charity work in a spirit of selfless benevolence and dedication as befits Rotary’s own motto, Service Above Self,” said Princess Chulabhorn.

“It is therefore a great pleasure to see members of Rotary International from all parts of the world, including their families, gathered here at the convention to reaffirm their faith and to remain steadfast in the ideals of Rotary, firm in their resolve ‘to do good in the world’. I am confident that your unwavering commitment and good intentions will reap due reward for our common cause.”

“Overwhelmed” by Rotary’s goal

Indian philanthropist Rajashree Birla, a widow who has given more than $4.2 million to the Rotary Foundation for polio eradication, said she has been “overwhelmed with Rotary’s polio efforts.” Birla and her son, Kumar Mangalam, head the Aditya Birla Group, a Fortune 500 company. Her “Giving to Living” campaign encourages corporations to “embed giving into their DNA.” “When a corporation pushes its energies and helps resolve social sector issues through engagement, it indirectly stimulates its own business development,” said Birla. “There is much to be gained when business leaders take giving to heart, and set the mandate of making a difference by caring for people in their community.”

Rotarians celebrate two polio milestones

During the third plenary session, Rotarians were congratulated for meeting and exceeding Rotary’s US$200 Million Challenge, Rotary’s response to $355 million in matching grants from the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation for polio eradication efforts. Attendees also celebrated India’s removal from the polio - endemic list in February, which leaves only three countries where transmission of the virus has never been stopped.

But speakers reminded the festive assembly that the work is far from complete, because the ultimate goal has not been reached. “We know that we haven’t reached our goal. We haven’t ended polio,” said John F. Germ, chair of Rotary’s US$200 Million Challenge committee. “Our clubs are still planning polio fundraisers for the coming years and encouraging donations from people in their communities.”

Germ announced that, as of 4 May, Rotarians and supporters have raised $215.7 million for the challenge, which runs through June. With Global Polio Eradication Initiative facing a significant funding shortfall, it is vital Rotarians keep pushing forward,

Public health emergency

Bruce Aylward, assistant director - general for polio, emergencies and country collaboration for World Health Organization, said “India’s removal from the polio - endemic list is perhaps the most important milestone ever on the long road to eradication. It’s a magnificent achievement. And it is a Rotary achievement. Today, Rotary’s vision of a polio - free world is much closer to reality.” But an upsurge in cases of paralysis from polio in Nigeria, Pakistan, and Afghanistan and recent polio outbreaks in China, Congo, and Tajikistan have prompted an “unprecedented push” to finally end polio. This month, 192 ministers of health were to meet to declare polio a public health emergency.

Shady Brook Rotary Club completed first RI project

The Rotary Club of Shady Brook recently completed its first International project with the installation of a storage tank to provide clean water for the village of Big Rock in the province of Abucay Bataan in the Philippines. The village's only water supply for 600 plus residents was from a stream which was used for bathing, washing clothes and drinking. Shady Brook Rotary Club, in partnership with a local Rotary Club, hired a contractor to dig a deep well and provide a storage tank so clean water would always be available. Shady Brook Rotary Club past president Dr. Augie Adrid (left) attended the ceremony dedicating the well to the village where he was joined by Ann Satiago, mayor of the province. Dr. Adrid's brother, Rene, who lives in the area, was instrumental in the completion of the project.
